

SeLD 5203-Making Online Learning Effective

Carlos A. Robles Carrero
Herbert Fletcher University

INTRODUCTION

Could the same happen to our Educational institutions, churches
and businesses?

Covid-19

Major Disruptive Event

COVID 19 created a major emergency in institutions that were not ready to embrace the methodology. It created a major sprint to modernize and catch up where possible. Those who are still not willing are facing tremendous challenges.

Schools expect enrollment declines

Share of surveyed institutions estimating change in the enrollment of first-year undergraduate students for fall 2020 compared to fall 2019

Decrease of more than five percent
51%

Decrease of less than five percent
29%

Increase of less than five percent
20%

SOURCE: Poll of 142 National Association of College and University Business Officers (NACUBO) members, conducted April 28-May 1, 2020.

Church donations have plunged because of the coronavirus. Some churches won't survive.

The Washington Post
Democracy Dies in Darkness

Get 1 year for $29

Universities are on the brink of crisis. Coronavirus may tip them over the edge

Glen O'Hara

After years of frozen tuition fees, and with costs rising fast, the pandemic could be the end for some institutions

- Coronavirus - latest updates
- See all our coronavirus coverage

fuboTV START YOUR FREE TRIAL

LaLiga

WATCH LALIGA LIVE

Pandemic? Church financially survive

▲ Students at their graduation ceremony, Aberystwyth University, July 2019: 'It may be that online and distance learning gets a decisive boost, especially if no effective coronavirus treatments or vaccine emerge in pretty short order.' Photograph: aberCPC/Alamy

Christian leaders during the coronavirus pandemic

WBTB COVID-19: CAN SMALL CHURCHES SURVIVE PANDEMIC

EFFORTS TO HELP CONGREGATIONS

5:32 | 62°
WBTB ON YOUR SIDE

3:03

Distance Learning

Effective Online Education

Is it worth it?

Can the same result be expected from Online courses that of F2F?

Do we have to train our staff in order to do this effectively?

Are the learning activities the same as F2F?

Adventist and Distance Education

1852

James White writes the first Sabbath School lesson booklet

1909

Frederick Griggs

2011

Herbert Fletcher University becomes the First Fully Online Adventist University Institution

2014

NAD establishes the Adventist Learning Community providing online courses to its members.

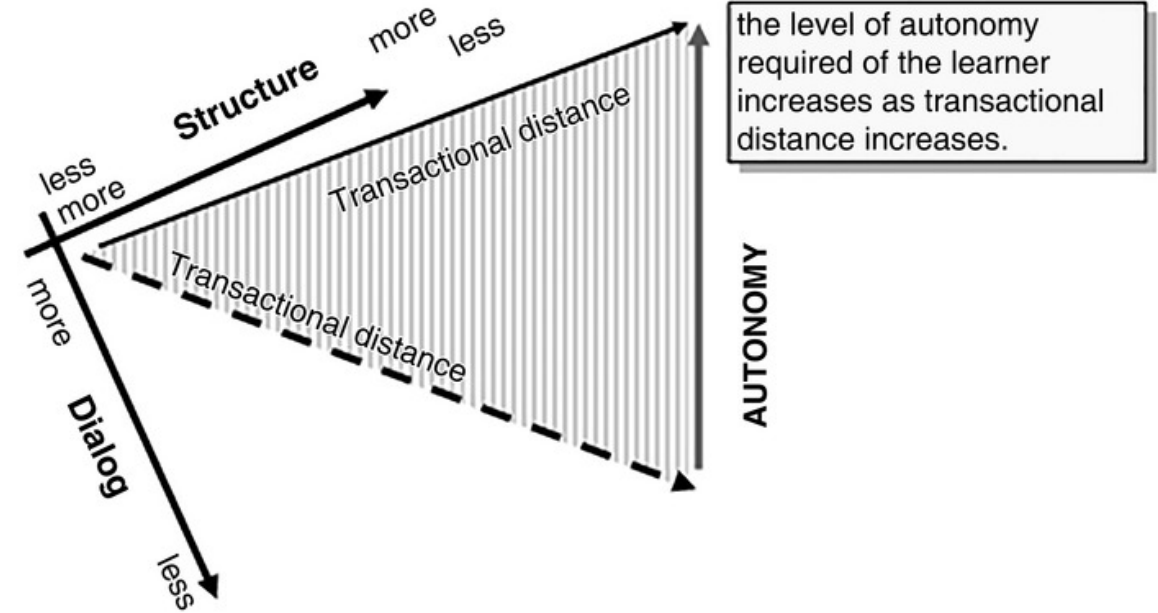

ADVENTIST LEARNING COMMUNITY
North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists®

What is Distance Education?

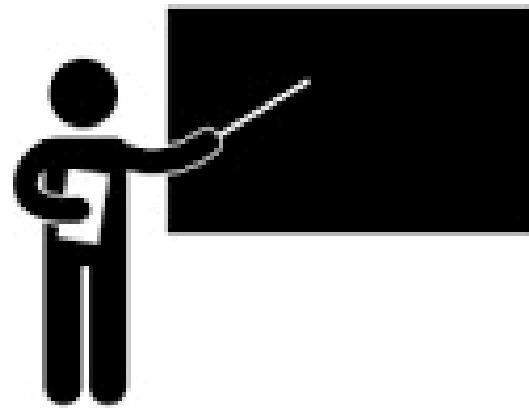

Michael Moore

Transactional Distance Theory

Low transactional distance
Learner is engaged, asking questions,
and connected to the learning environment.

High transactional distance
Learner is disengaged, unable to ask questions, and feels disconnected from the learning environment.

Más de 20 mil personas ya estudian la Biblia vía WhatsApp con la ayuda de robot

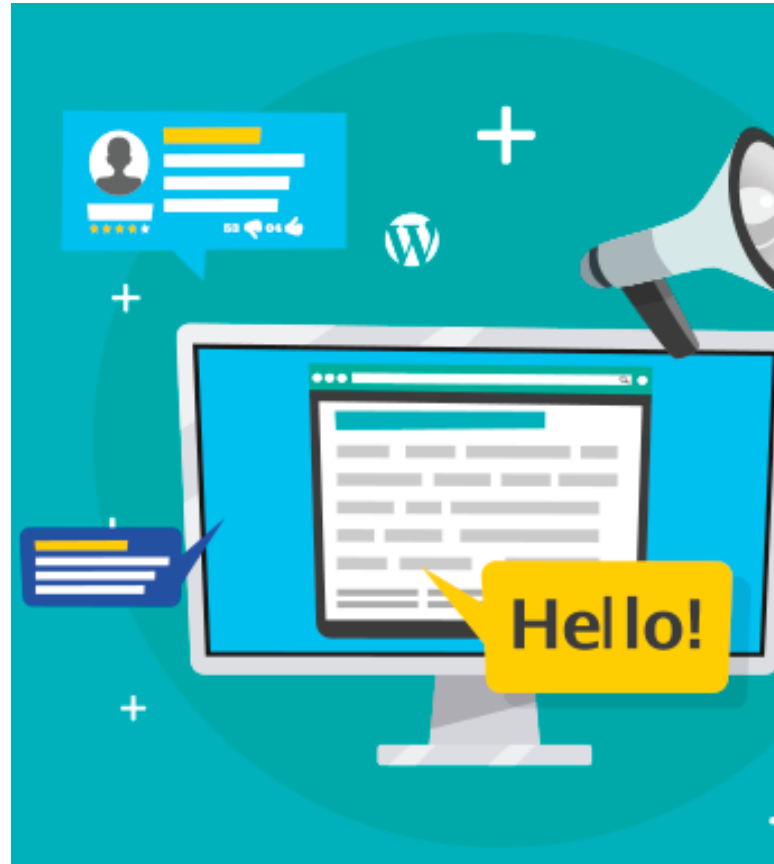

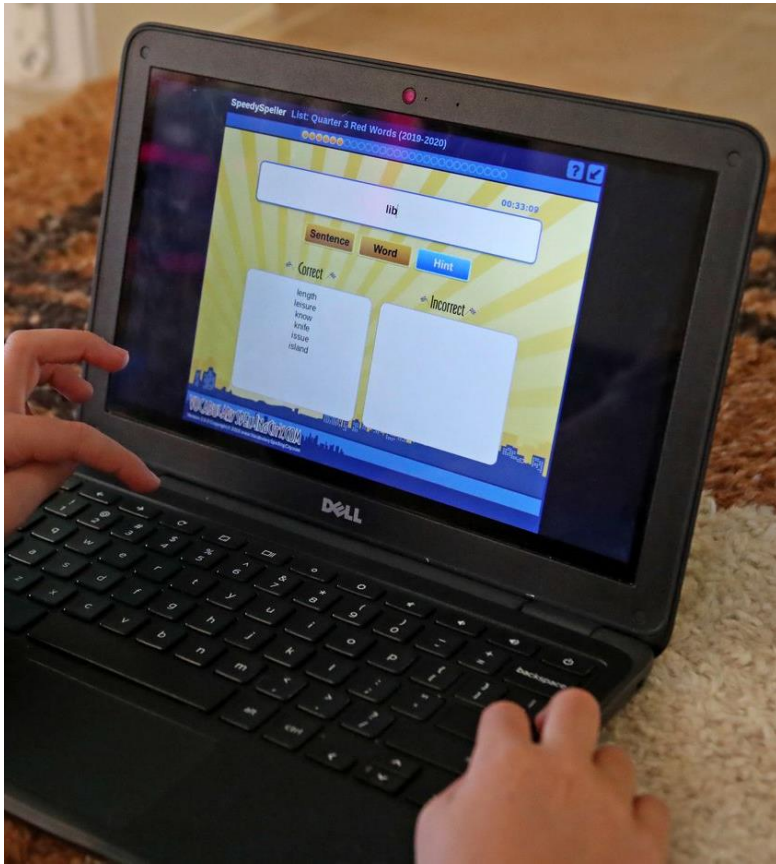

Nuevo recurso puesto a disposición por la Iglesia Adventista permite que el estudio ocurra completamente por la aplicación, contando con la ayuda de la tecnología o interacción humana.

Por Mauren Fernandes
20 de noviembre de 2019

Share 1.4K

Tweetar

What are the best learning activities that capitalize the online medium?

TECHNOLOGY THAT PROMOTES A MORE COMPLETE ONLINE ENVIRONMENT

nearpod

ClassDojo

Technology that Promotes a more
Complete Online Environment

Technology that Promotes a more Complete
Online
Environment

edpuzzle

edpuzzle.com/media/5c09ce9667986e4050128b65

Heart Part 1 Crash Course

Darla Loyless

00:53 09:16

CC

15ba2cd0de7....mp4

2020 -HFU_P....docx

Technology that Promotes a more
Complete Online Environment

Technology that Promotes a more
Complete Online Environment

Flipgrid

grammarly

Technology that Promotes a more Complete Online
Environment

“You are cherishing thoughts too limited in
the work for this time”

THANK YOU

May God bless you and your ministries!